I undertake to report any changes without delay, in particular, in the event that I take on additional teaching assignments that would result in exceeding the cap of nine weekly hours per semester. Appointment to the position of lecturer is not covered by social security since teaching assignments constitute a legal relationship under public law with the Free State of Bavaria and are, by their legal nature, self-employed work. A position as lecturer does neither give rise to an employee-like status nor economic dependence. With my signature I confirm that I have read the information contained in this Personnel Record as well as the data protection information set out in Art. 13 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for the collection and processing of personal data relating to my appointment as TUM Honorary Professor, TUM Adjunct Professor, Adjunct Teaching Professor, or adjunct instructor, available at <https://portal.mytum.de/kompass> under "Datenschutz – Lehrpersonal" in the TUM services directory (Dienstleistungskompass).
